The Score in the Baseball Game Saturday-The Kamehamehas Got Away With the Honolulus.

A large crowd of spectators witnessed the game on Saturday afternoon at Makiki between the Kamehamehas and Honolulus. It was a game that was characterized by good fielding on the part of the Kamehamehas, while two or three of the Honolulus tried to show how badly they could play. W. Lucas made up to his usual mark. In the second innings Parker hit a short one and that he stopped halfway and was put out. This evidently made him mad, action when the Kamehamehas went to bat. Two balls had been pitched before he took his place at first bag, and he went there as if next week would have been soon enough. An audience doesn't care about witnessing such nonsense.

For the Kamehamehas, Mahuka played a capital game at first and Richards' fielding at left was excellent. Davis pitched in fine style, well backed up by Pahau. The boys deserved their victory. W. A. The Wall umpired behind the bat while bases

Kamehameha School.

The pupils of the Kamehameha School gave a most interesting exhibition Friday P. M. in the Kawaiahao Church. The building was crowded in every part, many persons being unable to obtain admission. His Majesty the King, attended by Mr. J. W. Robertson, Vice-Chamberlain, H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani and Hon. Chas. R. Bishop were among those present. The platform was tastily decorated with ferns, palm leaves and flowers, and in front of the organ was a portrait of the late Hon.Mrs. Bishop, founder of the noble school.

The exercises consisted of music by the school chorus and the glee club, the latter in particular singing finely. In the chorus, "The Marvel ous Work," the solo was sung by by Mrs. Townsend. The recitations could not be distinctly heard owing to the noise made by some parts of the audience. Fractions on fire enced strong northeast trades with pleased very much. The Indian club exercise was a splendid exhibi-tion by several of the larger boys. Some excellent specimens of writing and drawing were done by the boys on the blackboards. The entire exhibition was one of much merit and in every way satisfactory to the large audience.

Breakfasted and Decorated.

At Iolani Palace Friday morning His Majesty gave a breakfast in honor of Mons. Alfred Houle Hawaiian Charge d'Affairs at Paris. Those present in addition to the royal host and his guest were, Hons. J. O. Dominis and A. S. Cleghorn, His Ex. John A. Cummins Minister of Foreign Affairs, Col. Z. S. Spalding, Dr. J. S. McGrew, Dr. Henri McGrew, Col. G. W. Macfarlane H. M.'s Chamberlain and Mr. Jas. W. Robertson H. M's Vice Chamberlain. The Hawaiian band

BEATEN TO DEATH.

Native Woman Loses Her Life at the Hands of Her Husband and Another Man.

Thursday afternoon a native woman named Hookoni who lived with her husband in a house the other side of Jas. Campbell's residence near Diamond Head, died from the effects of injuries inflicted on her by her husband John Kamakaiai and Keliihookano.

As far as can be learned the parties had been drinking. Between 2 and some miserable wild throws which 3 o'clock in the afternoon Keliihoproved costly, and his brother Albert | kano and the woman had a row and who generally plays so well, was not a fight ensued in which the husband joined. Both men pitched into the woman and hurt her started for first. Had he kept on he 5 and 6 o'clock. Another native on would have been safe, but instead of | finding the woman was dead came to town and notified the police. The two assailants were arrested and locked up, and next morning Deputybut was no excuse for his childish Marshal Hopkins held an inquest on the body of the woman, who was about 30 years of age.

Funeral Obsequies.

The funeral of the late Henri W Auld took place Sunday afternoon from the Roman Catholic cathedral After a brief service the remains were placed in the hearse and a procession formed to escort them to the cemetery on King street. It was headed by Fire Marshal White, then the members of the Honolulu Fire M. K. Keohokalole looked after the Department, Company No. 4 coming last. In front of the hearse rode one of the priests of the church. The pall bearers were intimate friends of the deceased. The chief mourners were the widow, Mr. Jas. Auld, deceased's father, and his two sisters. The floral offerings were very numerous and most beautiful, one a harp four feet high attracting much attention. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in Honolulu. The procession after leaving the church passed down Fort on to King street, direct to the cemetery. When the head of the procession was opposite the Government building, the last carriage was just getting into line outside the Catholic church on Fort street, which will give our readers some idea how many carriages were in line.

Graduating Exercises.

The forty-ninth anniversary of Oahu College was held last evening in the Central Union church. The platform was elaborately decorated with evergreens and flowers. At the back was the class motto "Tnepkpatei" in red letters on a green ground. It means "Overcome." The church was filled in every part. President Merritt and the graduating class, Harriet G. Forbes, Agnes E. Judd, Henry J. K. Lyman and Rufus A. Lyman Jr., occupied seats on the platform. The order of exercises was as follows:

Organ Voluntary-" Fantasia" G minor Students of the College.

-Woman Quickening a Nation's Conscience. Oration—Homer, Poet and Historian.
Henry J. K. Lyman.
Piano Duet—Sonata, "Tarantelle." Rheinberger.

Miss Castle and Mr. Bissell. Essay—Emperor Frederick.
Agnes E. Judd.
Oration—The French Revolution and its Influence. Rufus A. Lyman, Jr.

Valedictory Address (Valedictorian chosen by the Class.) Henry J. K. Lyman. Presentation of Diplomas. Solo—"I Fear no Foe."...... Pinsuti.

Ernest E. Lyman.

Anniversary Address—Education for Citizenship.

Rev. W. C. Merritt.

Chorus—March from "Montfort."....

Rheinberger. Students of the College. Benediction.

The exercises throughout were exceedingly interesting. The graduates were all the recipients of handsome bouquets and baskets of Those Ostrich-s.

The ostriches which arrived on the Australia for Dr. Trousseau, are three of the fifty-two birds a Mr. E. Cawston bought on the east coast of Africa in 1887. He had them taken 1,000 miles up the coast to Durban and thus saved $500 export duty on each one. At Durban he chartered a 300-ton bark and started with them for Galveston, Texas. The voyage was a remarkably smooth and plea sant one, so he only lost ten of the birds. At Galveston he shipped them on special cars to Los Angeles and thence to Norwalk Farm, some forty miles south. The birds cost him $75 apiece in Africa and $250 each to get them to San Francisco. The three are worth $1,000. On the voyage down they were fed on chopped potatoes and rocks.

Saturday's Entertainment.

Mons. Ravella, juggler, necromancer, etc., and Prof. Ferguson, a musical specialist, appeared at the Hawaiian Opera house Saturday evening. The audience was rather a small one. Mr. Berger and his orchestra played during the waits. Prof. Ferguson by the aid of a violin and his own voice produced enough music for a small orchestra. He is certainly very clever and his imitations of a steam engine, birds and animals were first class. Ravella is a clever juggler. The back of the stage was covered with an immense crazy quilt, all colors of the rainbow being visible. It was very pretty, but had one bad effect, the audience could not see the juggling very well. His specialties were all cleverly executed. A STATEMENT DENIED.

The Bulletin charges the ADVERriser with entering into a league with Mr. Bush to defeat the Administration candidate. What partieular basis there is for this charge the Bulletin does not mention. It must be the fact that a late number of the ADVERTISER contained an allusion to Mr. Wilcox and none to Mr. Bush.

Mr. Bush.

It is needless to say that the statement is absolutely false. We wash our hands of Mr. Bush and his doings. The National Reform Party for the purpose of defeating the Reform Ministry, entered into a disgraceful alliance with Mr. Bush, an alliance which ought to make every honest and respectable member of the National Reform Party cover his head for shame; but the Advertiser, and we believe the Reform Party, have no notion of imitating these base tactics to overthrow any Ministry whatever. The glory or the shame of league with Rush and Wilcox will have to reglory or the shame of league with Bush and Wilcox will have to re-glory or the shame of league with Bush and Wilcox will have to remain where it belongs—with the National Reform Party.

Increase of Steamer Service.

Mr. Jno. D. Spreckels in a recent interview said that if the Bonus Tonnage Bill for the encouragement of American shipping should become a law, it would result in greatly increasing the number of vessels in the Oceanic Company's service. A steamer would run weekly between San Francisco and Australia they would probably ply fortnightly, and in addition a new coast line between San Francisco and Valparaiso would be established.

Sporting News.

Sunol recently trotted a quartermile in 31 1-5 seconds at Terre Haute, Ind. She will soon be Haute, Ind. She will soon be trotted to beat Maud S.'s 2:08# for the mile.

Haggin's crack horse Salvator won the Sheepshead Bay Suburban, on the 17th, in 2:06 4-5. Cassius was second, Tenny third and Strideaway fourth. The stakes were worth $10,000. A race between Salvator, Tenny, Cassius and Raceland for $5,000 entrance each horse, the winner to take all, is proposed.

They All Talk.

A young man talks with pleasure, An old man talks with ease, The "orator" talks like some men walk-Six days, go-as-you-please.

The preacher talks of sins and things, Of hell's eternal fury; The lawyer hurls his jawbone at A mad but helpless jury.

Thus each one talks and talks and talks, Each of his own speech proudest, Neglectful of the patent fact That it's money that talks loudest.
